

CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

of Greater St. Louis

SCHOOL PROFILE

PREPARING EACH STUDENT TO LIVE A LIFE OF VALUE AND MEANING TO GOD, SOCIETY, AND SELF

About the School

HISTORY

The Academy has offered superior education in an environment of Christian values since 1976. It was instituted not to replace parental responsibility but to complement and enhance the task of providing a child with a balanced, total education. With maroon and white indicating school pride, Christian Academy proudly sports "Crusaders" as its mascot.

RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION

The Academy is an independent private educational institution. Faculty/staff, administrators and board members are faithful members of the Church of Christ.

Accreditation

- Cognia formerly known as AdvancEd/North Central Association Commission on Accreditation and School Improvement
- The National Christian School Association (NCSA).
